Intervene NOW! Classes

The Intervene NOW! program consists of psychoeducation classes aimed at men and women (in separate groups) who have committed domestic violence against their partners, their children and/or others in their family. Also appropriate for others who need more intensive anger/aggression management.

26 Weekly Sessions (1.5 hrs each)

$20 Weekly Fee

$100 Assessment (payable in installments)

$40 Exit Interview

The men's curriculum is primarily the STOP Violence program, developed by David Wexler, with supplementary materials from EMERGE and DULUTH—and covers all the required curriculum components of the Standards and Guidelines for Batterer Intervention Programs developed by the Missouri Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence. The women's program is being tailored to the particular needs of women, while still complying with the Standards—primarily utilizing Bowen's Domestic Violence Treatment for Abusive Women: A Treatment Manual. Participants in these groups will be expected to sign a participant contract and will be governed by policies and procedures of Intervene NOW! (see the link at www.socialchangeservices.com).
